

Dennis Paull

Painter - Cheboygan, MI

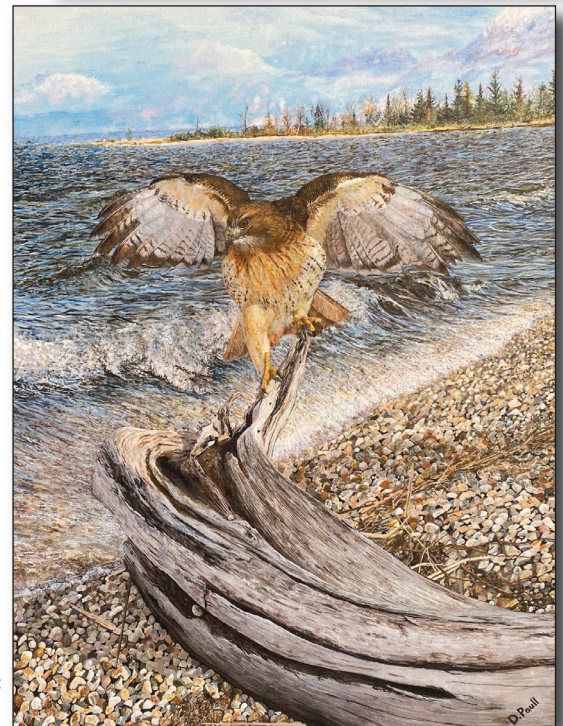

Denny Paull is an artist living in Cheboygan. His paintings are a reflection of a life-long love affair with the outdoors. Whether hunting, fishing, cross-country skiing or exploring the lakes and woodlands of northern Michigan, Denny's excitement of confronting wildlife in their natural environment has never faded. He hopes that his paintings reflect some of this passion and inspire others to further appreciate the wonderful beauty of northern Michigan.
